Diversity Challenge 2013

Sales / Marketing Internship – to an academic with multicultural experiences.

Do you want to gain important work experiences and invaluable networking opportunities?

Diversity Challenge offer university students with multicultural experiences a Nordic internship with Unilever, based in Denmark. With leading brands such as GB Glace, Ben & Jerry's, Frisko, Dove, Knorr and Axe, Unilever is one of the most successful consumer goods companies in the world.

As a partner in Diversity Challenge, Unilever offers an internship to a newly graduated academic with multicultural experience. The internship is available for people with an academic degree within business/economy and an interest in working with sales and marketing in FMCG.

The internship

You will be working on a Nordic sales or marketing project for six months. For the right person, there could be an opportunity for the role to be extended. The project specifications are decided in consultation with the intern before start.

The position is full time with a start date in the beginning of April or May in 2013 with a flexibility to start in the fall of 2013.

Your profile

You are most likely a business student with a major in marketing. You enjoy analytical tasks and possess high social competence. As a person you are result oriented, independent and outgoing. You deliver high quality and on time and you cooperate well with other people. You have at least basic skills in Danish and are fluent in English.

In 2005 Academic Search started Diversity Challenge. The purpose of this program is to increase the level of diversity within the business environment by offering talented graduates with a multicultural background a valuable working experience at some of the most inspiring and interesting companies in the Nordic countries.

For the eight year in a row we elect the winner of Academic Search Diversity competition where the finalist with the most interesting essay answer can win 10 000 SEK. The question of this year's competition will be presented in December and the winner will be announced during this year's Diversity Seminar in Stockholm.
